Kusakabe Tsubomi is a cheerful, sporty 10-year old girl - but lately she's been nothing but angry and it's all because of a certain alien called Clow Zet from the planet Bol Coni who's come to observe how the boys and girls of earth live. From first periods to underarm hair to all the insecurities and concerns about sexuality that come with becoming an adult, it's all tied together within the love story that is the second volume of the immensely popular Nasho no Tsubomi! A complete stand-alone story that's totally different from the first!
